Executive Focus

We realize that many successful individuals may struggle with substance use and mental health challenges. LWPG is able to help individuals effectively integrate and find balance in their recovery, personal and professional lives.

Corporate Interventions

This carefully organized approach is used to break through the barriers to care that often accompany Substance Use Disorders and mental health issues in the workplace. In a controlled, safe setting, our experienced staff allows Human Resources, coworkers and family members to express their support and concern, while LWPG creates a treatment plan.

Dan Lynch, CEO and Founder

With more than 30 years of experience in treating Substance Use Disorders and behavioral health issues, Dan has earned a reputation for results. He has helped individuals and families on the path to recovery, working with everyone from professional athletes, entertainers to executives.

Our Mission

To foster transformation through growth. Using the Lynch Wellness Approach, we believe in helping executives obtain freedom from addiction and mental health challenges. Our corporate concierge services are founded on the various dimensions of wellness. Our main objective is to provide innovative clinical expertise and recovery support to meet our clients' individual needs.
